THE CHALLENGE

Before partnering with Dovetail & Slate, the internal team at The City of Bristol College was overstretched as they relied on communicating with multiple recruitment agencies to fill crucial roles.

This meant the team was unproductive, spending a lot of time communicating across multiple agencies and inconsistent, low-quality, candidates.

THE SOLUTION

To address these challenges, The City of Bristol College decided to partner exclusively with Dovetail & Slate to streamline the process and address the college's ambitious recruitment needs.

The tailored solution included:

Negotiating preferential rates and prioritising them as a top client.

Onboarding a dedicated Senior Recruitment Consultant.

Establishing regular catch-ups to manage expectations and deliver quality service.
